Coroner Demands Panthers Produce Door Panel Missing From Raid Site CHICAGO, Jan. 15 (AP)—A contains a single bullet hole

deputy coroner conducting showing a shot was fired from leader of the Panther Party, an inquest into the fatal shoot, inside the apartment as police and Mark Clark, 22, a Peoria ing of two Black Panther approched it. Attorneys for Panther leader, were slain Party leaders said today he the Panthers have indicated will force an attorney repre that the panel has two bullet Hampton's West Side apartsenting Panther members to holes, one of which was ment. produce a door panel missing caused by a projectile from from the apartment where the outside the apartment. shooting took place.

panel.

witness has charged that attorthe missing panel.

Andrew said he holds the Martin S. Gerber, a lawyer panel in trust for his clients serving as deputy coroner, and would release it only on asked Francis Andrew if he the condition that all 14 poknew the whereabouts of the licemen who participated in the raid first testify at the in-Gerber noted that a police quest. Some already have.

Gerber rejected the condineys representing Panther tion and termed it unfair. He members have possession of said he would issue a subpoena to force Andrew to pro-Police maintain the door duce the missing panel.

Fred Hampton, 21, Illinois Dec. 4 during a police raid on

One Defendant Granted Bail in Panther Killing

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 15 (AP)—Superior Court Judge Aaron J. Palmer set bail at $10,000 Wednesday for Frances Carter, a Black Panther party member facing charges in the slaving of another Panther, Alex Rackley of New York.

Of the five Panthers arrested in the case who have requested bail, Palmer granted only the request of Miss Carter, 20, of Bridgeport.

She and 13 others were arrested after the death of Rackley, 25, whose body was found in a Middletown swamp May 21. Seven persons are awaiting trial here on murder and kidnaping charges. Two others pleaded guilty to lesser charges.